35. Variation

35.1 No variation of this Contract is binding unless it is agreed in writing between the Parties or is made under clause 2.2 or this clause 35.

35.2 The Commonwealth may, from time to time and in its sole discretion, vary Schedule A without the agreement of the Service Provider by giving notice to the Service Provider. Before giving notice, the Commonwealth will consult with such professional, industry and consumer groups which the Commonwealth in its sole discretion decides to consult.

35.3 The Commonwealth will not be liable for any additional work undertaken or expenditure incurred by the Service Provider pursuant to a variation to this Contract or the imposing of conditions, unless such variation has been effected in accordance with this Contract and the additional expenditure has been agreed to by the Commonwealth.
35.4 The Commonwealth may initiate a proposed variation of this Contract by issuing a formal request to the Service Provider containing details of the proposed variation and if required, specify the period of time by which the Service Provider is to indicate whether they accept the proposed variation.

35.5 The Service Provider must, within the time specified by the Commonwealth under clause 35.4 or within a reasonable time if no time is specified, indicate in writing whether it wishes to accept or reject the Commonwealth’s proposed variation.

35.6 If the Service Provider accepts the Commonwealth’s proposed variation under clause 35.5, the Commonwealth will prepare a formal variation to this Contract.

35.7 If the Service Provider rejects the Commonwealth’s proposed variation under clause 35.5, the Commonwealth may terminate this Contract with no penalty in accordance with clause 27.

37. Cumulative Remedies

37.1 Except as expressly provided otherwise in this Contract, a right, power, remedy, entitlement or privilege given or granted to the Commonwealth under this Contract is cumulative with, without prejudice to and not exclusive of any other right, power, remedy, entitlement or privilege given or granted to the Commonwealth under this Contract, under the Act, at law or in equity.

39.3 To the extent permitted by law, the Commonwealth is not liable to the Service Provider or the Service Provider Personnel for any loss in connection with work health and safety in performing the Services.

(a) first, the Party claiming that there is a dispute will give the other Party a written notice setting out the nature of the dispute;

(b) secondly, the Parties will try to resolve the dispute by direct negotiation, including by referring the matter to persons who have authority to intervene and direct some form of resolution;
