

Contacting the Department of Health and other Agencies

The Hearing Services Program (the program) works in conjunction with other government agencies to administer certain components of the program. When issues arise the program may not be able to resolve them without the assistance of another agency. In these circumstances you will be referred to the appropriate agency for assistance.

Contacting the Department of Health

Service providers and clients of the program should call the Department of Health's Contact Centre for enquiries related to

- General program information
- Validating client details
- Client transfers
- General claiming questions

Please call the Contact Centre directly on 1800 500 726 or through the National Relay Service \(NRS\) on 1800 555 660, or email hearing@health.gov.au. Alternatively you can submit an online enquiry and feedback form.
