

Hearing services available

The following pages provide information on the hearing services available to clients through the Australian Government Hearing Services Program (the program). All of the pages are available as factsheets which can be downloaded and printed out if needed.

Client information booklet

The program has prepared an information booklet that outlines the services that may be available if you are an eligible client.

How to find or change your service provider

This page outlines how you can find or change your service provider.

What to expect at your appointment

This page outlines what you should expect at your first appointment as a client of the program.

Specialist hearing services

Specialist hearing services are available for clients of the Hearing Services Program who have additional hearing and communication needs.

Norfolk Island

A Norfolk Island factsheet has been prepared to assist residents assess if they are eligible for the program.

Services for clients with cochlear implants or bone anchored hearing aids (BAHA)

If you are a client of the Hearing Services Program (the program) and you have a certain type of implanted hearing technology, you may be eligible to receive specialist hearing services.

Accessing hearing services during a natural disaster

The following information page relates to urgent assistance available to you if you live in an area affected by a natural disaster and your usual hearing services provider has closed.